Elaborate Finishing—There is some elaborate work being done on the interior finishing of the large banking apartment on the ground floor of the Newhouse building, especially in the ornamental plastering on the ceiling and pillars. By a new process, mottled marble effects are made on the hard white plaster of Paris piers, so that on being polished, there is no discerning the difference between the plaster and actual marble, except on close inspection. The arrangement for incandescent lamps on the ceiling is elaborate, calculating to produce some beautiful effects, particularly when the ceilings have been frescoed.

CAMP FIRES FOR VETERANS.

Past Commanders Will Speak in Assembly Hall to Old Soldiers.

A feature of the coming Grand Army encampment will be the campfires to be held during the week. The campfire committee met yesterday and decided to have Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings set aside for the campfires. Sixteen past commanders of the G. A. R. are still alive, and it is planned to have four of these speak each evening dur-ing the holding of the campfires. These meetings will be held in the Assembly hall. Assembly hall. For the position commander-in-chief of the Gra Army next year there are two candidates in the field. They are Judge W. A. Ketchum of Indiana and former Governor Samuel R. Van Sant of Minnesota.

HOW TO SAVE MONEY.

The school children are answering a question that has puzzled many older heads. They are writing essays for the Salt Lake Security & Trust company on practical plans for saving These essays will certainly prove interesting. It is possible that some older people will learn a few valuable lessons in thrift and economy when the prize essays are published.
